

The Second Symposium Deorientalizing citizenship?

European Research Council (ERC) funded Oecumene Project, The Open University

12–13 November 2012

Goodenough College
London

Day 1

12 November 2012

09.30–10.00

Registration

10.00–10.30

Introduction by Professor Engin Isin (The Open University)

10.30–12.45

PANEL 1: Orientalism, colonialism and citizenship

Sukanya Banerjee (University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee), Jack Harrington (The Open University), Alessandra Marino (The Open University), Meyda Yeğenoğlu (Istanbul Bilgi Üniversitesi)

12.45–14.15

Lunch

14.15–16.30

PANEL 2: Democratizing politics, decolonizing citizenship

Bela Bhatia (Tata Institute of Social Sciences), Oscar Guardiola-Rivera (Birkbeck, University of London), Charles Hirschkind (University of California, Berkeley), Sasha Roseneil (Birkbeck, University of London)

16.30–17.00

Coffee

17.00–18.30

Keynote lecture by Professor Walter Mignolo (Duke University)

Citizenship, Knowledge and the Limits of Humanity (II). Chair: Encarnacion Gutierrez-Rodriguez (The University of Manchester)

18.30–20.00

Wine reception

Day 2

13 November 2012

10.30–12.45

PANEL 3: The universal after orientalism

Gurminder Bhambra (University of Warwick), Sudeep Dasgupta (University of Amsterdam), Antke Engel (Institute for Queer Theory), Vivienne Jabri (King's College, London)

12.45–14.15

Lunch

14.15–16.30

Roundtable 'Citizenship After Orientalism: An Unfinished Project' (Discussion of Citizenship Studies Journal special issue)

16.30–17.00

Coffee

17.00–18.30

Keynote lecture by Professor Saba Mahmood (University of California, Berkeley) Religious Liberty, the Minority Problem and Geopolitics. Chair: Maleiha Malik (King's College, London)

18.30–18.45

Closing remarks by Professor Engin Isin (The Open University)

oecumene
citizenship after orientalism