

First Symposium

Citizenship after Orientalism

European Research Council (ERC) funded Oecumene Project invites you to:

International Conference

Opening the Boundaries of Citizenship

6–7 February 2012 (preliminary programme)

Faculty of Social Sciences
The Open University
Milton Keynes

Day one 6 February 2012

- 10:00 - 11:30 Professor Bryan Turner (CUNY) Keynote Lecture
'City, Nation, Globe: Three Movements in the History of Citizenship'
- 11:30 - 12:00 Coffee
- 12:00 - 13:30 Parallel sessions: Sexualising Democracy, Recasting Race, Enacting Citizenship,
Crossing Borders
- 13:30 - 14:30 Lunch
- 14:30 - 16:00 Parallel sessions: Negotiating the Urban, Politicising the Cultural,
Pluralising Citizenships
- 16:00 - 16:30 Coffee
- 16:30 - 17:30 Professor Paul Gilroy (LSE) Keynote Lecture
'Subjects in the Kettle: Notes on Citizenship, Dissent, and Securitocracy'
- 17:30 Reception (Berrill Cafe)

Day two 7 February 2012

- 10:00 - 11:30 Professor Judith Butler (University of California) Keynote Lecture
'Self-Determination, Palestinian Statehood, and the Anarchist Impasse'
- 11:30 - 11:45 Coffee
- 11:45 - 13:15 Parallel sessions: Mobilising Rights, Thinking the Political, Gender and Multiculturalism, Writing Cultures
- 13:15 - 14:00 Lunch
- 14:00 - 15:30 Parallel sessions: Governing [In]Securities, Interrogating the Secular,
Postcolonial Paths, Suspended Spaces: Israel-Palestine in focus
- 15:30 - 16:00 Coffee
- 16:00 - 17:30 Professor Engin Isin (The Open University) Inaugural Lecture
'Citizens Without Frontiers?'
- 17:30 Reception (Berrill Foyer)